If you are a freshman applicant, upload a PDF copy of your current high school transcript. If you are a transfer applicant, upload PDF copies of all colleges you have attended since high school.

Many schools and colleges allow you to access your records online and to print or save unofficial copies. If you have hard copies of transcripts, you can use a scanner to scan and save the documents as PDF files.

All unofficial transcripts MUST be generated from their respective institutions, and must include the name of the institution as well as the student's full name. Please redact/black out your Social Security number.

4. Audition

Applicants must submit an audition either in person or by video.

Applicants who reside within 200 miles of UCLA are required to audition on campus. Students who live outside the 200-mile radius or are unable to attend an on-campus audition, may submit an audition video.

Audition Repertoire: Jazz Studies

Applicants who indicate Jazz Studies as their primary area should prepare an individual audition of jazz standards for their instrument. Following the prepared performance, students will be expected to perform improvisations with a backing rhythm section or Aebersold tracks (provided by the department), and should expect to be asked to demonstrate sight-reading skills.

We do not provide a repertoire list. All traditional jazz instruments including voice, piano and guitar are eligible for an audition. Saxophone is the only eligible woodwind instrument.

Should you require live accompaniment, please make private arrangements. If you are bringing recorded accompaniment, the department will have speakers with .mp3 ports (3.5mm headphone jack) as well as CD players for your use at the audition. The department can provide amplifiers (for guitar), and a drum set will be available at the audition. You may indicate these requests through the online system.

Audition Repertoire: World Music

No specific instrument or repertoire is required; what you choose to perform, and on which instrument, is completely up to you.

Should you require live accompaniment, please make private arrangements. If you are bringing recorded accompaniment, the department will have speakers with .mp3 ports (3.5mm headphone jack) as well as CD players for your use at the audition.

LIVE AUDITION

The total length of the audition/interview is normally 15 minutes. For the audition, a minimum two selections are required, with playing time lasting approximately 5-10 minutes.

Your audition will be conducted before a small committee (usually 2-3) of Ethnomusicology faculty in your area of music concentration. The faculty will determine which selections they wish to hear, and in what order. They will also determine how many selections they need to hear, and how long each selection needs to be performed. As a part of your audition, rhythmic and pitch skills will be assessed.

Following your performance, you will have a brief interview with the faculty. Questions asked of you will attempt to determine prior knowledge, experiences, and influences in world music and cultures, and specific academic and career interests and goals, relevant to the Ethnomusicology major.

All applicants are evaluated on their performance ability, musicianship skills, and knowledge, experiences, and goals expressed in the interview.

AUDITION DATES

Auditions for both Jazz Studies and World Music will be held on campus:

Saturday, February 2, 2013 - Jazz Studies and World Music

Saturday, February 9, 2013 - Jazz Studies only

After receipt of the supplemental application, students will be emailed with their assigned audition day and appointment time by January 18, 2013.

If you are unable to attend a live audition, please prepare a video that is no longer than eight (8) minutes of repertoire, according to the above guidelines. A minimum two selections are required. On the video, please introduce yourself, as well as the titles of the selections you will be performing.
